VIDEO: Fifth Harmony Performs New Song 'Work from Home' on ELLEN

Canadian actress Jessica Lowndes known for '90210', 'Greek' and 'The Prince' joined AfterBuzz TV host Mikaela Phillips to chat exclusively about her new Single "Silicone in Stereo". Watch the appearance below:

When Phillips asked about the creative process behind Lowndes lyrics in the song, that paint a picture of a more distressed and realistic view of chasing a Hollywood dream, she said, "That song to me, represented a lot of experiences in LA. LA is one of the most amazing places. It's great but you also see a lot of different kinds of people and it's hard to know who you can trust."

Lowndes also discussed her upcoming role in the movie directed by 'SAW' horror movie director Darren Lynn Bousman about an investigative reporter that works to solve the mystery of a haunted house in 'Abattoir'. She described her role of Julia as a character that is the light in the darkness and had an amazing time shooting the movie. "We shot in New Orleans; it's a super dramatic role and I had the time of my life."

Lowndes also exclusively informed AfterBuzz that viewers can expect to see 'Abattoir' when it's (intended) released this Halloween.

When asked by Phillips what other upcoming projects Lowndes has, she teased that there are some big things coming up that she can't yet disclose. So make sure you stay tuned and keep an eye out for Jessica Lowndes this year.
